1. Completed application includes: Application for Review; Submittal Fee; Completed and Signed Check List; Plan Sets and applicable Reports; and other information deemed necessary by the reviewing agent. Application documents lacking any information shall be deemed incomplete and will not be considered as officially submitted.
2. New business for Planning Commission consideration, which does not necessitate plan review, shall be submitted to the Department of Community Development a minimum of 10 business days prior to agenda posting in order to be eligible for placement on the agenda.
3. The Planning Commission is required to meet once quarterly. If there is no new business to discuss or in the event of inclement weather, meeting cancellation will be posted at the Ranson City Hall front door bulletin board.
